Prayers of the People

Congregational Response: Come, Holy Spirit

Wisdom from on high, be with the leaders of the nations, giving them discernment and patience as they guide the people they serve; for this we pray. Come, Holy Spirit.

Mighty Wind and Holy Fire, unsettle the hearts and minds of this church and diocesan community, that we may be challenged anew to hear your word and boldly live its message in this new day; for this we pray.

Blessed Advocate, may our ministries reflect your love for the poor in spirit, the needy, the sinner, those who are victims of injustice, oppression, violence, and abuse, and for all whom the Son of God gave his life; for this we pray.

Spirit of many tongues, may the peoples of the world find a common language of the heart, where cultural and racial diversity find holy ground, and the people of nations suffering under bonds of oppression discover the way to peace; for this we pray.

Holy Comforter, pour your grace into the souls of all who have died, especially those dying from Covid-19, that they may know your abiding presence; for this we pray.

Spirit of thankfulness, we offer our gratitude to first responders, caregivers, educators, retail workers, delivery drivers, factory employees, and all essential workers, without whose help we would be unable to sustain life in this time; for this we pray.

Filled with the power of the Holy Spirit urging us to be the people of passionate witness, we remember our special intentions in prayer. You are invited to pray aloud those prayers you give to our God.

Opening Hymn 508

1 Breathe on me, Breath of God,
fill me with life anew,
that I may love what thou dost love,
and do what thou wouldst do.

2 Breathe on me, Breath of God,
until my heart is pure, until with thee I will one will,
to do or to endure.

3 Breathe on me, Breath of God,
till I am wholly thine,
till all this earthly part of me glows with thy fire divine.

4 Breathe on me, Breath of God,
so shall I never die;
but live with thee the perfect life
of thine eternity.

Closing Hymn 516

1 Come down, O Love divine, seek thou this soul of mine, and visit it with thine own ardor glowing; O Comforter, draw near, within my heart appear, and kindle it, thy holy flame bestowing.

2 O let it freely burn, till earthly passions turn to dust and ashes in its heat consuming; and let thy glorious light shine ever on my sight, and clothe me round, the while my path illuming.

3 And so the yearning strong, with which the soul will long, shall far outpass the power of human telling; for none can guess its grace, till Love create a place wherein the Holy Spirit makes a dwelling.
